

The Cobbold Family History Trust

requests the pleasure of your company at their 2008 exhibition

Paper-cuts, Poems, a Parson and his Pictures

a celebration of the work of

Elizabeth Cobbold (1764 - 1824) and her son Richard (1797 - 1877)

at

Glemham Hall, Little Glemham, Woodbridge, Suffolk IP13 0BT

(by kind permission of Philip and Raewyn Hope-Cobbold)

*Saturday July 26th
to Sunday August 3rd, inclusive.*

10am - 4.30pm Daily

*No reply necessary
Bring as many guests as you wish
Please see reverse*

The Keeper of the Trust will be in attendance

THE EXHIBITION

Please come and support the Cobbold Family History Trust and bring family and friends. There's no restriction on numbers. Entry to the exhibition is free but visitors are asked to pay £5 towards the costs of opening the house.

The Keeper of the Trust will be in attendance throughout and will have the family tree with him. Please bring your queries and better still any Cobbold artefacts and ephemera for assessment.

The exhibits include over 200 Elizabeth Cobbold paper-cuts and the 34 original Richard Cobbold, Margaret Catchpole watercolours which are the subject of the current appeal. Many items have never been exhibited before.

The Richard Cobbold Watercolours Appeal is still open and contributions are still needed. For those who have donated already this is your promised chance to see how your money has been spent. For those who have not yet contributed this is your opportunity to do so. Please come!

Queries or more invitations:

Anthony Cobbold, 14 Moorfields, Moorhaven, Ivybridge, Devon PL21 0XQ.

Tel: 01752 894498 Email: anthonycobbold@tiscali.co.uk www.cobboldfht.com

GUIDED TOURS of GLEMHAM HALL

Tours conducted by Philip Hope-Cobbold personally will be available as follows:

Sunday 27th July 10.30am

Wednesday 30th July 2.30pm

Saturday 2nd August 10.30am

The tour includes house, part garden and tea / coffee with cake. Minimum 6 and maximum 25.

Cost £15 (includes exhibition). Book in advance by ringing 01728 746704 or email: events@glemhamhall.co.uk