

Patron: Lord Cobbold DL
Ivry, Lady Freyberg

TOLLY COBBOLD / EASTERN ARTS 4TH EXHIBITION

August 2016

Five prizes were awarded in 1983. The winners were Graham Crowley, William Henderson, Paul Huxley, John Virtue and Alison Wilding. Each received £1,750.

The selection panel comprised Robert Medley (artist), Caryl Hubbard (Chairman of the Contemporary Art Society), Adrian Berg, Chairman (artist), Tony Cragg (artist) and Richard Wentworth (artist).

The exhibition opened at the Fitzwilliam Museum in Cambridge and went on to Christchurch Mansion, Ipswich; the Museum of Modern Art, Oxford; the Barbican Art Gallery, London; the Talbot Rice Art Centre, Edinburgh and the Leeds City Art Gallery.

Graham Crowley whose work '3B 1982' we show was born in Romford, Essex in 1950 and studied at St. Martin's School of Art from 1968 to 1972 and at the Royal College of Art from 1972 to 1975.

'4th Exhibition Catalogue'

'4th Exhibition Catalogue' '3B 1982' by Graham Crowley, Oil on canvas.'