

Patron: Lord Cobbold DL
Ivry, Lady Freyberg

REMEMBRANCE DAY 2016

November 2016

The Trust believes it has a significant duty to remember, alongside all family members, those who gave their lives for our freedom in two World Wars.

Accordingly we will again post our annual memorial in the Daily Telegraph under the heading IN MEMORIAM THEIR NAME LIVETH FOR EVERMORE on Friday 11th November and this will be repeated in a special section of the Sunday Telegraph two days later. The names and some details of the 48 Cobbolds killed in both wars may be found at 'KING & COUNTRY'.

We have also placed a cross in the Royal British Legion Field of Remembrance at Westminster Abbey which will be found in plot 266. This is beside the footpath from the north gate to the north door of the Abbey, opposite St. Margaret's.

Our pictures show the Field of Remembrance and our cross from a previous year.

CFHT cross in RBL Field of Remembrance at WA 2014

RBL Field of Remembrance at Westminster Abbey 2014