

SILKEN STRANDS

May 2019

The Trust is pleased to have added the following items to its archive:

- The 14th Century History of the Cotehele, Edgcumbe and Brendon families by Tom Brendon.
- Gates of Adventure V. Ipswich: Port of East Anglia, an article from The Geographical Magazine of June 1939, by Captain J M Cobbold, JP.
- On the Embryogeny of Orchis Masculula, an article by T Spencer Cobbold MD
- A new Form of Naked Eye Medusa (Thaumantias achroa) with Histological Details, an article by T Spencer Cobbold, MD., FLS. Communicated to Linnean Society, March, 1857.
- A photograph from a 1907 magazine showing a steam driven brewer's dray delivering to the Asylem Hotel.

The Trust is particularly grateful for financial donations received from Andrew Hughes Hallett, David Jamieson, Tim & Carolyn Cobbold, Marika Cobbold and Gill Gowing.

The Trust is also grateful for help given, often with family tree information, by (in no particular order):

Jim Harrison, Nicky Hibbin, Jane Dismore, David Rowley, Adele Mallen, Steve Painton, Neil Lupin, Vanessa Griffith, Peta Bruce, Carolyn Cobbold, Sally Hacking, Laurie Forth, Deborah Hughes Hallett, Robin Doughty, Sue Coales, Leslie Rhodes and Peter Carr.