SCATTERED MEMORIES

June 2015

An Autobiography by Nicholas Cobbold with Clive Hodges

“As a young man, he led a glamorous life at full tilt. He drove a succession of fast cars, sped fearlessly headfirst down the Cresta Run and flew aeroplanes and helicopters, surviving not one but two air crashes.”

“Scattered Memories tells these stories and others that mark Nicholas Cobbold out as a man of boundless energy and enormous fun. A daring and accomplished practical joker since childhood, his creative prankshave rarely, if ever, landed him in hot water, whether he has been deploying whoopee cushions, firing billiard balls from a cannon or impersonating the Archbishop of Canterbury’s right hand man.”
