The document is signed by his son, Lt. Cdr. Alistair Philip Cobbold RNVR (1907-1971) (#472) and by his co-executor, Francis Alfred Worship Cobbold (1882-1947) (#361) a lawyer who had won a DSO in WWI.

It is possibly Francis's last signature for the document is dated 3rd April, just 18 days prior to his death.

Advertising playing card promoting Lowe, Son & Cobbold, brewers of Stamford carrying the image of an overweight monk astride a long suffering donkey, exclaiming:

*Oh Lowe, Son & Cobbold, our hearts you do cheer
Through supplying the world with such excellent beer
For though to our grief from Chartreuse we're turned out
We shall lessen our sorrow by drinking your Stout!*

200th Anniversary Waterloo Campaign Medal to archive alongside Elizabeth Cobbold's Ode on the Victory of Waterloo, of which we reproduced 3 verses here back in June.
