

CHRISTMAS

December 2015

The Cobbold Family History Trust wishes all visitors – be they family or friend – a Christmas that is peaceful and joyful, and a New Year that fulfils all your expectations.

Traffic into the Trust has increased markedly this last 12 months, a year in which we participated in the reopening of Holywells Park and published two more books.

Major improvements to our website will be evident in January 2016. The Trust is in good shape. Thank you family, friends and supporters.
